Landscapes are about . . .

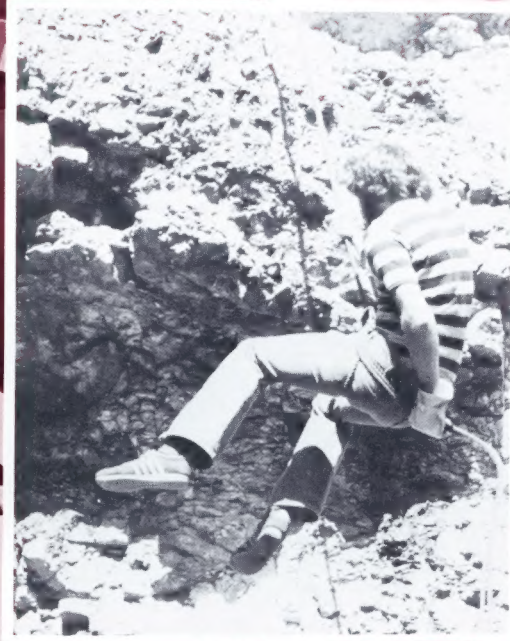

It's people who count.

It's we who shape
the landscape,
change it,
bring it to life.
Look beyond the brick and mortar . . .
look closer . . . to where we really live.

Here is where we learn to

Here is where we're listening.

working

with our hands and minds . . .

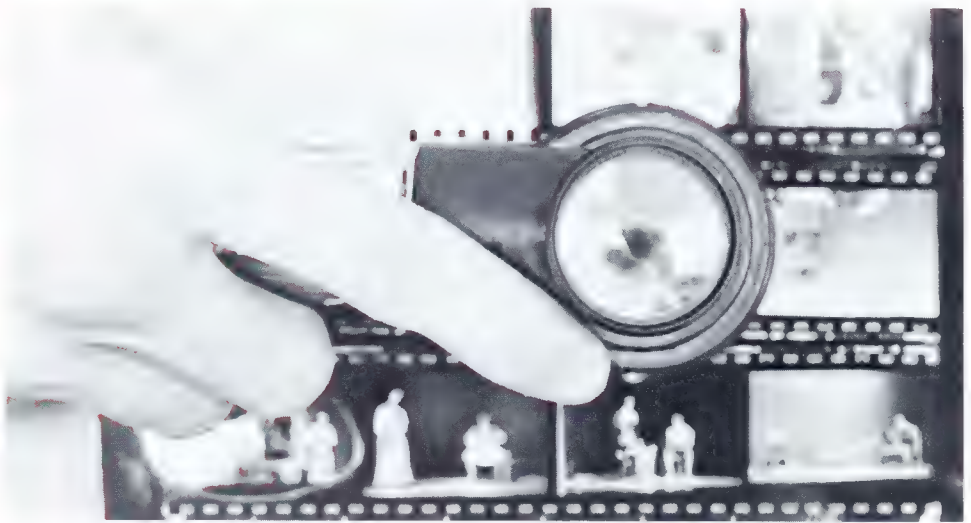

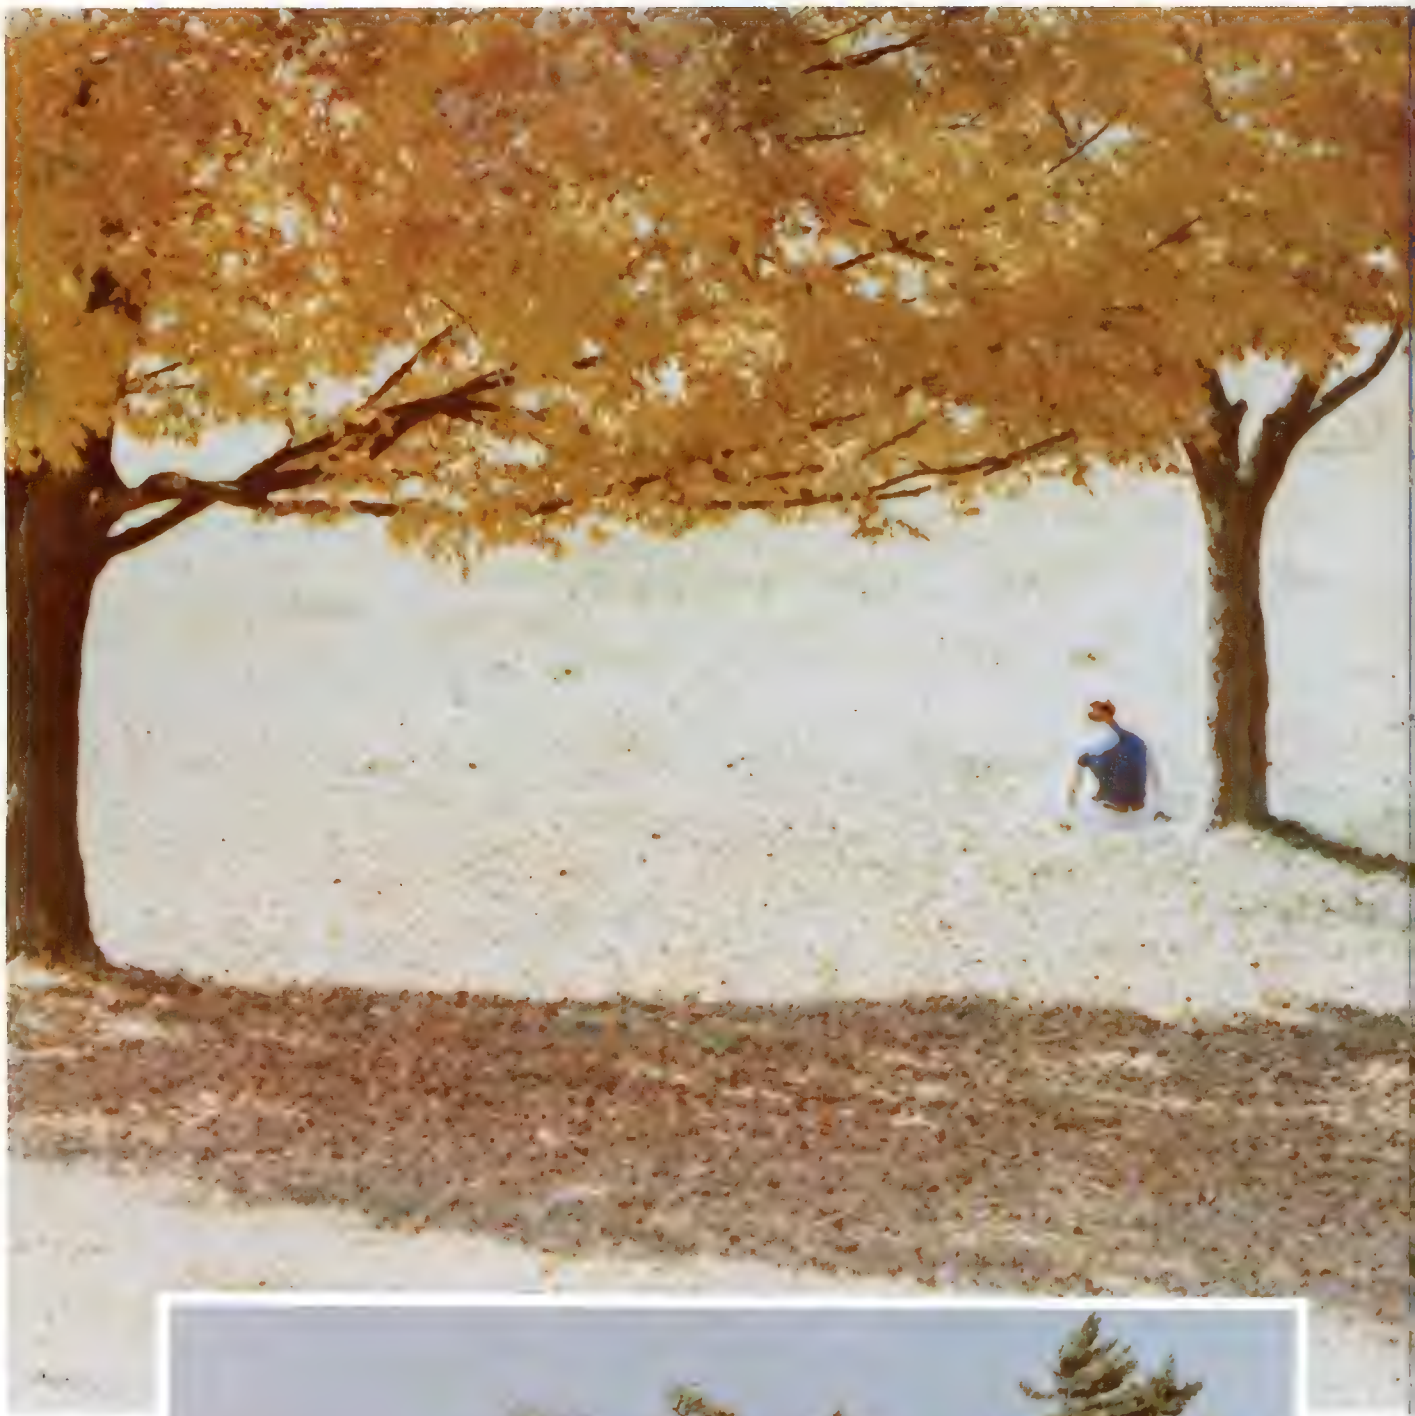

... playing as hard as we work

... sometimes harder ...

... learning to be alone and together,
... learning about ourselves and each other ...

. . . becoming
who we want to be,
with a little help
from our friends.

HOMECOMING '77

Homecoming 1977 began with heavy voting for Queen Candidates. included in the week long festivities were the Pep Rally, concert, Homecoming parade, football game and dance.

Above Left: First place campus decoration—Afro-American Society.
Below: First place float—Society for the Advancement of Management.

decade
of lion

Nancy Hubbard of Industrial Technology was chosen 1977 Homecoming Queen. Right: Sweepstakes Trophy was awarded Society for the Advancement of Management.

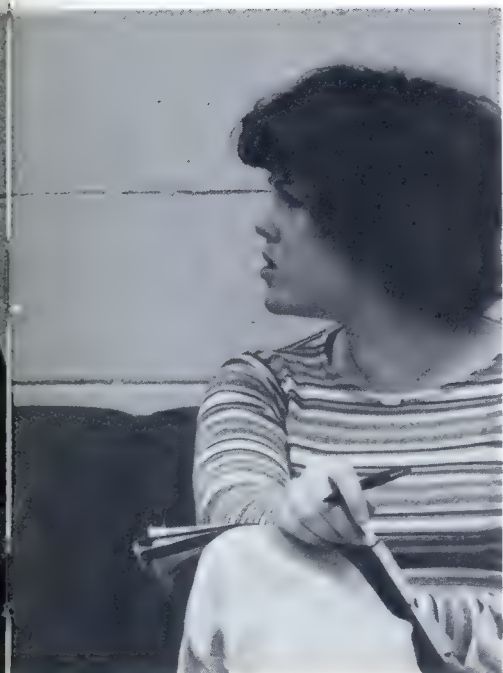

Victor Marchette, author and former CIA agent, criticized the agency in his lecture October 18 for being too secretive. Its function should be as a collection, research and analysis operation, he stated, not as a highly classified dirty tricks department. "You can't tell the public everything, but the U.S. citizen should be aware of the overall picture."

The Shrine circus came to the MSSC stadium again last August, bringing lions and tigers and bears (oh, my) as well as clowns, aerialists and equestrians.

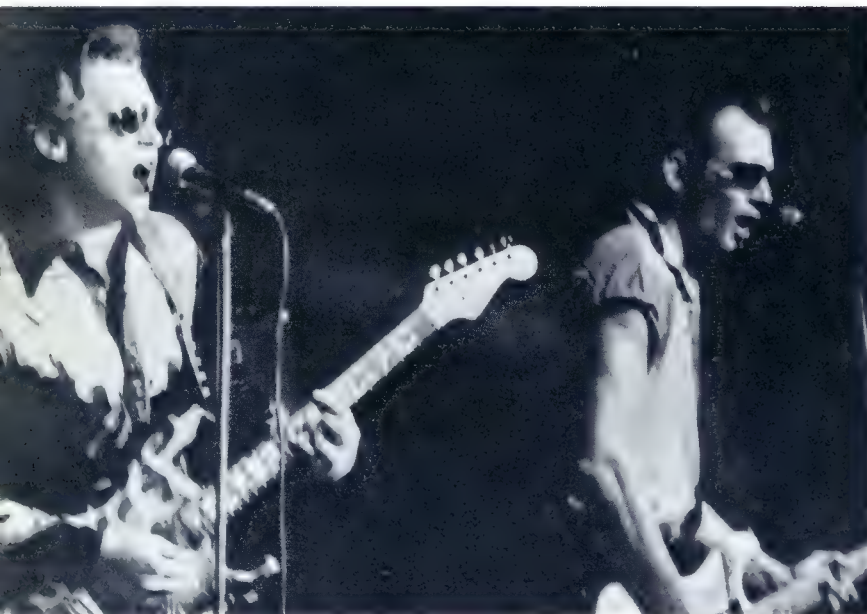

VISITING ARTISTS

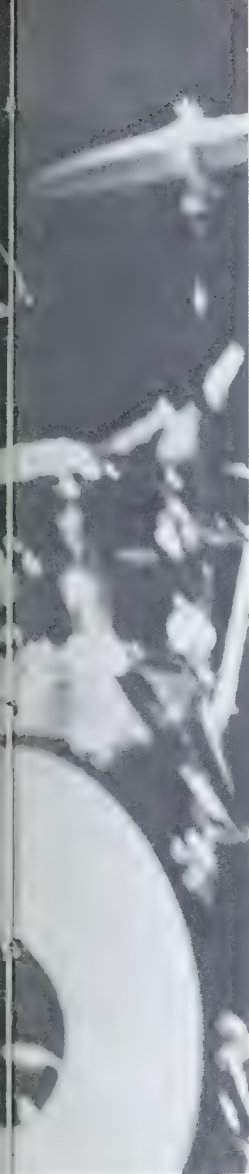

Dr. Won-Kyung Cho, Korean dancer, actor, scholar and author, brought the mystery and beauty of Oriental dance and poetry to a fascinated audience. Highlighted by exquisite costumes, lighting effects and Korean music, the performance gave his viewers insight into the cultural traditions of the Orient with grace, charm, and honor.

FLASH CADILLAC AND THE CONTINENTAL KIDS
rocked and rolled across the Taylor stage September 9 to the tunes of the fifties. Their appearances in Happy Days, Midnight Special and in American Graffiti preceded their local debut.

WOODY HERMAN, a great jazz band leader for forty years, lead his band—all in their twenties—through a sensational concert of blues, jazz and rock. His "Thundering Herd" proved there is nothing old fashioned about the big band sound, as the audience
clapped and cheered and stood for a thunderous ovation.

"LADY, YOU'RE ROCKING THE BOAT!!"

Muriel Bach held her audience spellbound as she created a parade of fascinating American Women from Abigail Adams to Gertrude Stein and Eleanor Roosevelt. Before our eyes, the dynamic performer changed costumes as she changed characters, adding a shawl or hat or wig to bring each new character to life, and she gave her audience a thoroughly entertaining history lesson.

MOTHER COURAGE AND HER CHILDREN

Mother Courage and Her Children was the first play by Bertolt Brecht produced by the College Theatre department. The highly theatrical production utilized set units, film, music and song to play on the audience's imagination rather than make a realistic setting for the scenes.

The production was entered in the Tenth American College Theatre Festival, and Raymond Lee's costume designs were nominated by the Regional Festival judges for Outstanding Technical Achievement.

Cinderella

CINDERELLA played to over 5,400 school children in Joplin, Carthage, Neosho and Lamar in a total of nine performances. This was the 16th show produced by the Show-Me Celebration Company of the Theatre Department and sponsored by Joplin's Association for Childhood Education during the past nine years. Children are the liveliest of audiences—oh's and ah's for Cinderella, cheers for the Prince, applause for the Fairy godmother, peals of laughter for the step-sisters. Live theatre gives the children an experience not touched by television.

My Sister Eileen

Blasting for the new subway from 6:00 am to midnight right under the Greenwich Village apartment, five Brazilian Admirals following them home from Brooklyn, several rather over anxious suitors running in and out of an apartment that has a broken back-door lock, and to top it off—a conniving and slightly lecherous landlord . . . Bad as it may sound that's not all that happened to the two sisters from Ohio who come to seek their fame and fortune in the Big Apple!

Art League

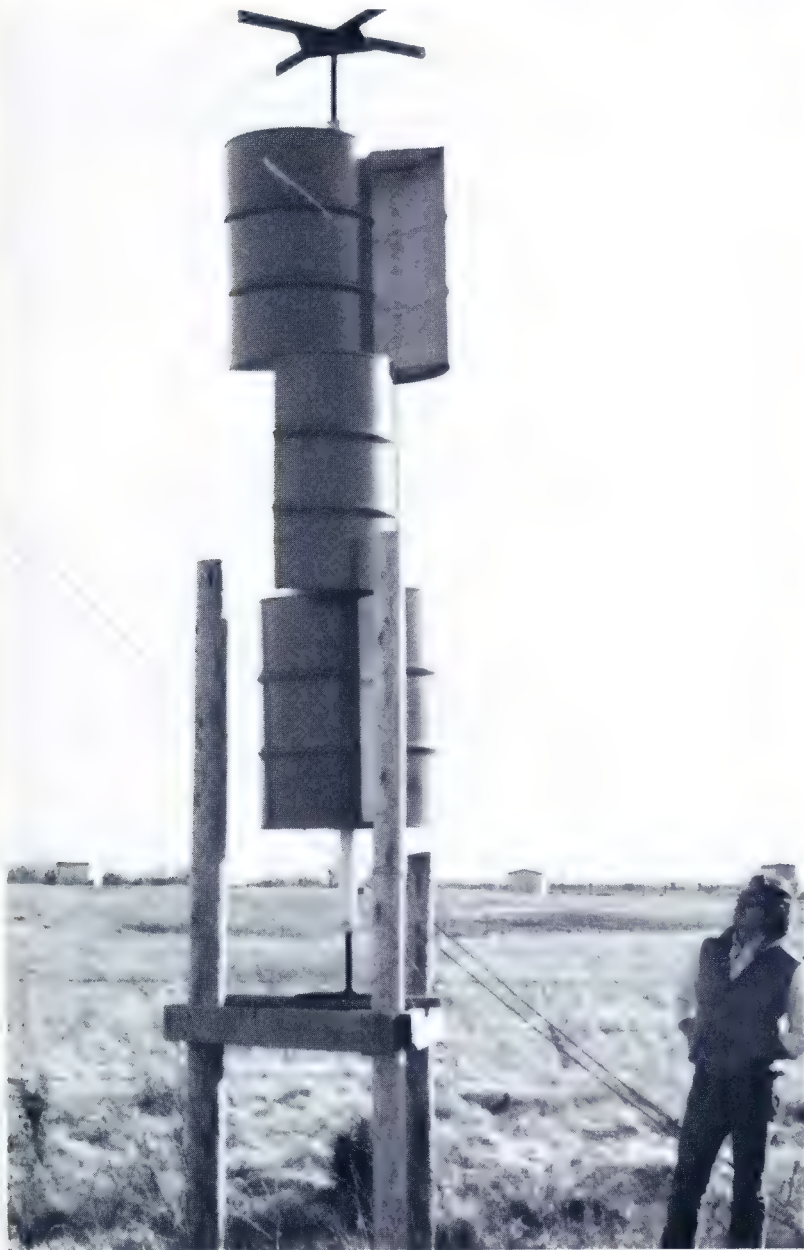

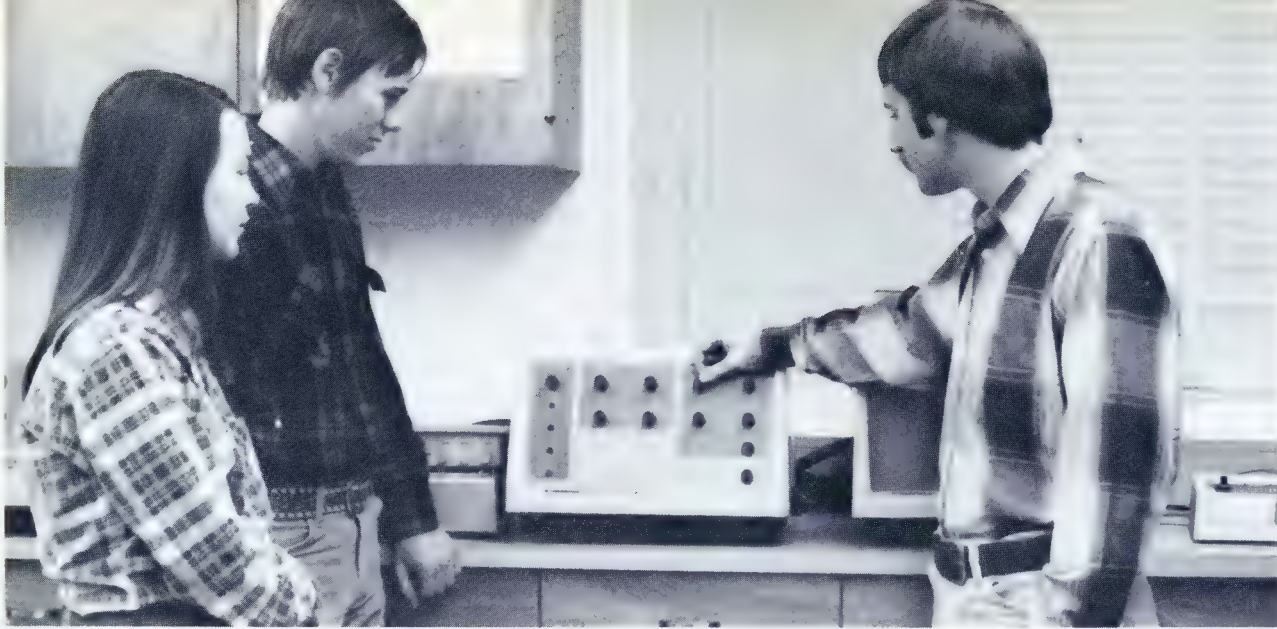

Art League attempted with success to provide students with a mode of opportunities to express themselves and show their accomplishments. A major project backed this year by the Art League under the sponsorship of Darrel Dishman was the South Showcase Fall '77 competitive exhibit. Above Right: Art League Queen candidate Michelle Hindman.

Chi Epsilon Phi

Members of Chi Epsilon Phi, honorary physics fraternity, have been working on experiments in various areas of physics. One such project begun last year, was building a Savonius windmill made of 55 gallon barrels. The 12 foot high construction, unlike conventional windmill designs, will accept the wind from any direction. Members have also been conducting experiments to find better ways of storing hydrogen than in the conventional battery, which wastes a lot of energy.

Industrial Technology

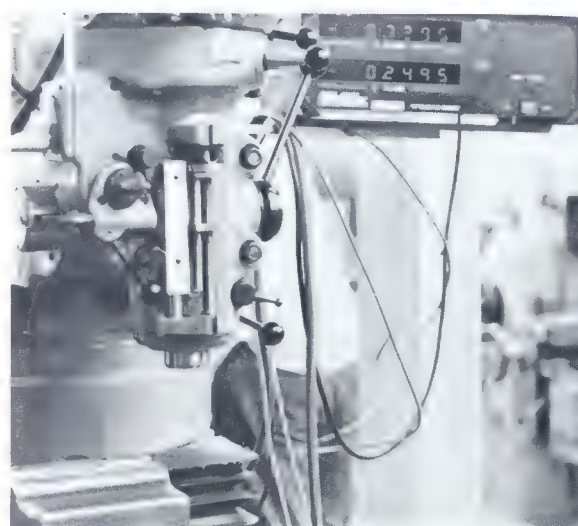

Extreme care is essential in the use of the sophisticated engine lathe to prevent damage to parts, machinery, and fingers . . .

The Industrial Technology Club diversifies on many facets of modern technology including Dental Assisting, Dental Hygiene, Drafting and Design, Law Enforcement, Health Administration, Machine Technology, Military Science, Nursing, Radiologic Technology, and Automotive Technology.

There is a place for either sex in ITC whether it is boiling big engine blocks, astute measurement of imperfect steel parts or detection of sagging walls.

Since 1945, the Joplin Junior College Alumni Association, today known as the Missouri Southern State College Alumni Association, has sponsored activities for the Alumni.

In the fall of 1968, officers and board members embarked on a campaign to strengthen the role of the Alumni Association. This predicated the need for money to provide operating capital. Annual dues were established for active members as well as a category for associate members who are not alumni of the College.

During 1977 the Alumni Association gave five $200.00 scholarships, one $100.00 scholarship, sponsored a Tennis Tournament and recognized Mrs. Janice Kiser as the outstanding senior at a banquet in July. Mr. Larry Roberts, class of 1969 is president of the organization.

Ecumenical Campus Ministry

ECM serves as an umbrella organization for a number of religious groups on campus, sponsoring Religious Emphasis Week each spring (which last year featured Robert L. Short, author of THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO PEANUTS), and providing counseling on campus for all who desire.

The group also sponsors Continuing Education classes in religion and philosophy, and summer retreats for students, as well as Volkswagen races and other secular activities. ECM also provides meeting space for a head start program in their quarters at the corner of Newman and Duquesne Roads.

Among the Lions recognized for their performances this year were co-captains Kenric Conway and John Zingrich, who was also named Outstanding Senior Performer. The Most Valuable Player Award went to Larry Barnes. Jim Wright, popular Lion Trainer, was honored with the final pre-season football drill being named the Jim Wright Scrimmage. Proceeds from the warm-up tussle with Coffeyville Junior College went to the Handicapped Adult Recreation Program.

Soccer

Coach Hal Bodon's Soccer Lions finished a strong 10-7-3 season with five players receiving All-District 16 honors. The district record was 4-2-2 with one win and one loss in the playoffs. Serving as tri-captains of the team were Cary Maloney, Chuck Vallentine and Paul Knight. Rookie of the Year honors went to Rob Lonigro and Tim Behnen with Todd Johnston being named Most Inspirational Player. Most Valuable Player awards were given to Maloney for Defense and Tom Schnieders for Offense while Ron Behnen copped the Best Sportsmanship Award.

The Junior Varsity won their sole game with State Fair Community College.

The Lady Lion spikers are proud of their accomplishments over the past few seasons. Beginning as a varsity sport in 1975, the volleyball team has shown constant improvement. Despite the tough competition met by playing an increasingly rigorous schedule, the Missouri Southern women's volleyball team has accepted the challenge and proven themselves to be very capable.

Basketball

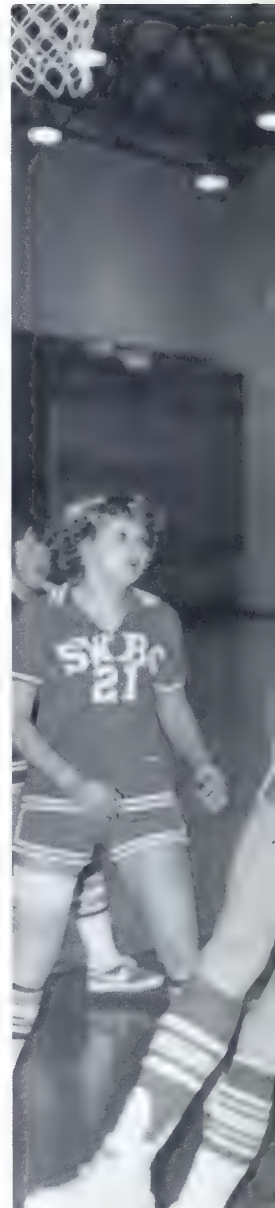

The Lady Lions charged full steam ahead this year under the direction of new head coach Ms. G. I. Willoughby. Although their CSIC record was 3 and 6 (at press time), the overall season record was 13 and 7 with six games left on the schedule.

The team can look forward to working with dedication and enthusiasm to build an even stronger winning team. In Previous years, Coach Willoughby's knowledge and experience netted three Nebraska State Championships and six years' participation in the AIAW Regional Basketball Tournament.

The new look of Coach Williams featured a "hardnose" defense. In addition, the Lions ran more this year, but did not sacrifice getting the good shot off of their half-court offense. Coach Williams in his first year at the MSSC helm successfully blended the returnees, the newcomers and the injured into one team with defense, enthusiasm and unity being the key factors for their many wins.

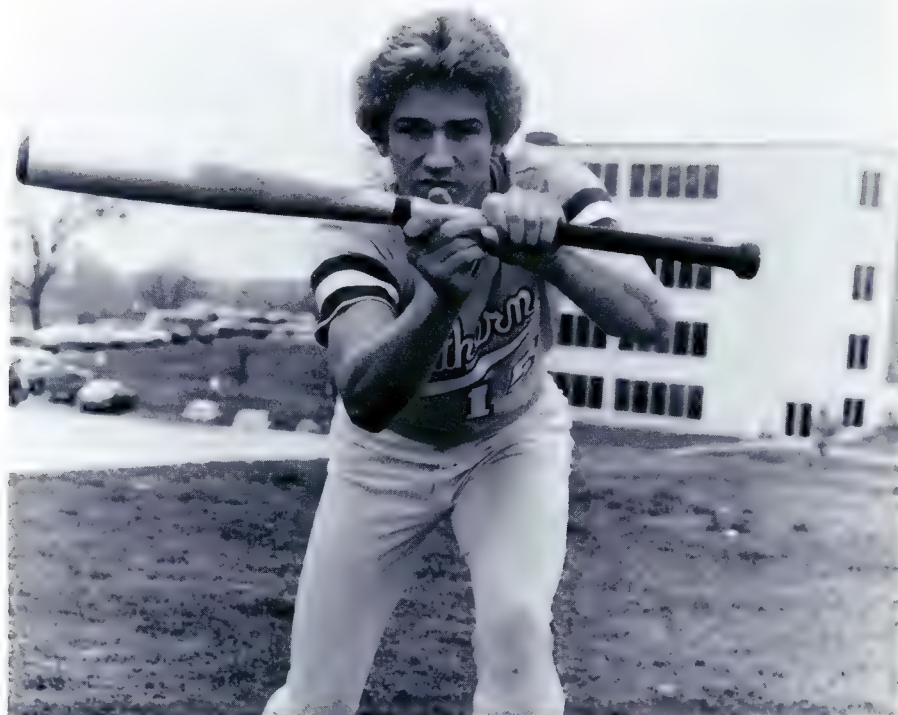

Baseball

The 1978 outlook for Missouri Southern's Baseball Team is shaping up to be very exciting and challenging. Fall workouts presented a team much improved in defense and pitching depth.

Leading hitters returning from last years club are outfielder Red O'Dell, who batted .346 and infielder Chuck Valentine, with a .325 average. Two top pitchers are also returning to bolster the Lion pitching staff, Barry Jenkins, a right hander with a 2.39 ERA and Dennis Selbe, also a right hander, who logged a 1.73 ERA.

BOARD OF REGENTS-TRUSTEES

On July 1, 1977 the unique bi-level organization of Missouri Southern State College came to an end with full State funding for both the Senior and Junior College levels a reality. The Junior College assets were turned over to the State, and the Board of Regents appointed by Governor Joseph Teasdale became the sole governing body of the institution.

The Board of Trustees which were elected to govern the Junior College District will continue to function only to levy the taxes to retire the bonds which built the campus. When those bonds are retired in 1986, the Trustees will be dissolved.

NORVAL M. MATTHEWS

1895-1977

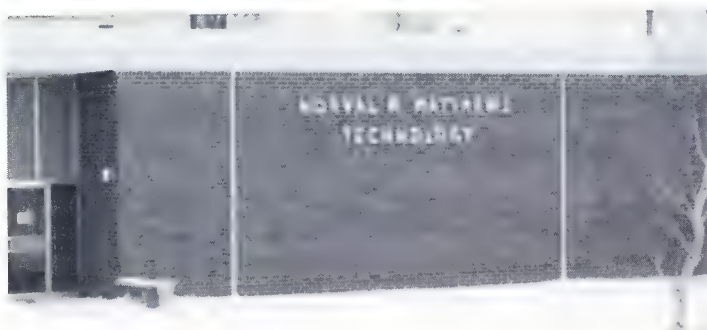

Norval Matthews was a man with a dream. He was fond of describing "the day when Fred Hughes (new president of the Board of Regents) and I were standing with some other businessmen at the corner of Fourth and Main in Joplin and conceived the idea of a four year college for the district. That's the period of my life of which I am most proud." He saw that dream to reality serving the college as a trustee from 1964 to 1974 and as a regent from 1965 until his death in August, 1977.

His love for the Ozarks and its people was exemplified not only in his service to the college and the area, but in his book THE PROMISED LAND, a valuable reference work for those interested in the history of Jasper County in particular and Southwest Missouri in general.

In 1972, at age 77, Mr. Matthews enrolled as a college freshman in a journalism class "to further my education and to get a better perspective of college life from the student's viewpoint." He became a valued member of the Chart newspaper staff.

Mr. Matthew's participation in the building of MSSC was vital; his personal interest in the students inspiring, and his support of their campus activities inexhaustible. He will be missed.
